

I am adamantly AGAINST allowing the use of cellular telephones on airborne aircraft. No matter how the seating could be configured, other people using their cell phones would mean an intrusion on everyone else.

In addition, any seating arrangement would limit the choices we have when we make our reservations. The space on an airplane is just too confined to allow the use of cell phones while in the air.